The Flag Bearer then presented the Bethel Flag. All Job's Daughters members, past and present, rose and sang the Bethel Flag Song, after which the flag was escorted to the east.

The Installing Chaplain attended at the alter and offered a prayer for the incoming Officers and their work during the ensuing year.

The Installing Secretary then read the names of the the elected Jurisdictional Guardian Council Officers for 2025-2026.

The Officers took their obligation and were installed into their respective offices. The Jurisdictional Guardian-elect, Sarah Larder, was then escorted to the Altar and installed as Jurisdictional Guardian of Queensland for 2025–2026. She was escorted to the east and introduced to those present.

The Installing Officer installed the following Committee Chairs for the ensuing year:

- Promotion: Sarah Larder and Natalie Halpin
- Finance: Izabel Autor
- Fraternal Relations: Ian Milne

The duties and responsibilities of the Committee Chairs were outlined and they were installed into their respective positions.

The Installing Secretary proclaimed the Officers duly and legally installed for the ensuing year.

Remarks were made by:

- Alyssa Autor, Miss Queensland Job's Daughter
- Grace Brumm, Jurisdictional Bethel Honoured Queen
- Ian Milne, Associate Jurisdictional Guardian
- Sarah Larder, Jurisdictional Guardian

Each shared their congratulations, reflections and best wishes for the year ahead.

The Installing Chaplain attended at the alter for the closing prayer.

The Jurisdictional Guardian and Associate Jurisdictional Guardian approached the Altar and signed the Bible, marking the commencement of their term of office.

The Closing Ceremony was conducted, bringing the formal proceedings to a close.

As the new Council began its term, those present were encouraged to carry forward the theme for the year, "Be Strong and Courageous," supporting one another and the Daughters of Queensland with strength, courage and friendship.

The Installation Ceremony was declared closed at 11.30am
